Water District to Computerize Billing In October; Other Changes Noted

The Bethel Water District's regular September meeting on Tuesday night was devoted largely to implementing plans and handling all water bills through a contract computer billing service. The shift to computer billing by the District is expected to save approximately $800 in the first year of its use despite start up costs that make the initial expenses higher than average. E. J. Prescott, Inc., of Gardiner, Maine, is the company that will provide the billing service for the Bethel Water District.
After the first billing period has been completed, the District plans a public meeting to hear of problems and service complaints. This meeting will probably be held in early November.

Also in October, the District will change a number of its administrative procedures. All calls about water service problems or questions should be directed to the District office at 824-2342. A telephone answering device has been installed so that a caller can leave their name and number if the superintendent is out of the office when the call comes in. Mrs. Louise Lincoln has been hired as the District's part-time secretary/bookkeeper. And once all administration is centered at the District's Philbrook Street office, arrangements for customers to pay their bills in person will be set up at Prim's Pharmacy which is open seven days a week and all evenings.

In making these changes, the District trustees estimate that the first year's costs for administration and computer billing will be approximately $3,000 as compared to the rate of $3,600 currently being paid to the Town of Bethel annually for this service but second year expenses should drop to approximately $2,400 for a savings of $1,200 a year over the current rate.

"AFFIRMATIVE ACTION" WORKSHOP AT BETHEL INN ON WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17

Jane Riley, the Affirmative Action Coordinator for the State of Maine will conduct an all-day workshop on Affirmative Action policy and practice in schools at the Bethel Inn on Wednesday, Sept. 17, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Participants in the workshop will increase their awareness regarding affirmative action requirements in education, such as the prevention of discrimination in hiring practices and the elimination of bias and stereotyping in the classroom, curriculum, and materials.

Rosemarie Hirshey, the Affirmative Action Coordinator for M. S. A. D. #44, invites teachers, administrators, staff and students from local educational institutions to attend.

Invitation is also extended to interested community members, especially parents of school students. There is no charge for the workshop and lunch will be provided for participants. To register, call Mrs. Hirshey's office at Telstar, 824-2582, before noon on Sept. 12.

BETHEL C. OF C. COORDINATING LOCAL MEETINGS AND CONVENTIONS PROGRAM

The Maine Publicity Bureau and a newly formed Maine for Meetings and Conventions Association have joined forces to promote increased use of Maine facilities such as inns, convention halls and civic centers for convention use for organizations both within and outside of Maine.

The Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce has received application forms and questionnaires from the Maine Publicity Bureau and has distributed them to local businesses that are likely to be interested in such a program.

If an organization or business is interested in receiving an application but has not yet been contacted then the owner should call the chamber's executive director at 824-3322 or secretary at 824-2346.

Over the years Bethel businesses and individuals have benefited in various ways from having the NTL labs here in the summer. Increasing this kind of business is the goal of the new Maine for Meetings and Conventions Association.

Over 200 in Attendance at Bethel's Special Town Meeting Tuesday Night

Approve Housing for Elderly and Chapman Brook Bridge; Reject Bridge St. Land & W. Bethel Rd.

The Bethel special town meeting held at the Telstar Auditorium on Tuesday evening of this week attracted an attendance estimated at over 200 by municipal officials. William Cousins served as moderator for the two hour and 20 minute session.

Those present gave the "go-ahead" for Dictar Associates of Portland to develop up to 20 units of housing for the elderly at the former Thunderbird Motel property on Main Street. The project is to be funded by the Maine State Housing Authority.

Following discussion concerned principally with the total cost of the project, $37,000 was approved by a standing vote of 95-62 as the Town's share of the expense of reconstructing the bridge over Chapman Brook in Northwest Bethel. The Board of Selectmen and Town Treasurer were authorized to issue general obligation securities of the Town in an amount not to exceed $37,000 to finance the local share. The projects total cost is estimated at $185,000 with the Federal government's share to be $111,000 and the State's, $37,000.

The voters accepted as a Town road, Chandler Terrace, in the Swain and Cross Subdivision off the Chandler Hill Road. The newly accepted road was built in accordance with Bethel's street design and construction standards enacted on March 21, 1978.

The meeting rejected the proposed purchase of 16.78 acres of land located off Bridge Street at a cost of $33,000. The property, part of the Murphy lot, so-called, is adjacent to Town Garage lot and tentative plans were to utilize it for future recreational and possible public works development. Extended discussion concerned cost of the property, accessibility and suitability of the land for the intended primary purpose, as well as the expense of future development.

The voters approved a new dog control ordinance replacing a similar ordinance enacted on March 1, 1971. Specifically the ordinance makes it unlawful for the owner of a dog to cause or permit such dog to disturb the peace of any person through continued barking or howling, would make it unlawful for the owner of a dog to cause or permit such dog to damage or destroy property of any person; and make it unlawful for the owner of a dog to urinate or defecate on private property, not owned by the owner of the dog, without permission of the owner of such private property. Other sections enable the town to recover costs of picking up dogs running at large and transporting them to impoundment and set higher penalties upon conviction of a violation of the ordinance.

By a written ballot of 68 yes to 80 no, the voters rejected the

— Olive Davis, Corres. —

Mrs. Forest Twitchell has returned home from Stephens Memorial Hospital, Norway, where she has been under treatment for nearly two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks, Olive Davis and two of the West Paris helpers, Lyndell and Arline Farr, who furnished music for the 1st and 2nd degrees, attended the special meeting Saturday night of Franklin Grange. Four candidates were initiated; two from Pleasant Valley and two from Franklin.

Mrs. Karen Ross and two children spent the afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell.

This was a corn year after all. I've picked all of three bushel off a small plot. I thought it would never grow in June but the hot weather of July and August did the trick. It's about gone now. The string beans outdied themselves this year too, but the carrots and beets were disappointing. Peas did very well. The beets seem to be scarce so cucumbers are not setting on very fast. However I will have all I need this season.

Maude was a Sunday dinner guest of Arthur and Ruth Cummings.

Earl Colby was discharged Friday evening after a week at Maine Medical Center. The complications caused by the medication have apparently been cleared up. It has been found that he has pinched nerves in both wrists and so he will be limited on what he can do for work for awhile at least.

Softly treads the gentle giant

On paths not walked by lesser men;

His sighs long focused on a dream

Unseen, unheard, or scoffed by them.

What solid clarity of vision here

Where nature shows him what he seeks,

And challenges afresh his earthy skills

To live, or die, as his God meets.

Ah, that we all would take the time

To learn what too soon is forgot:

That gold, nor fame brings peace of mind;

That what's immortal can't be bought.

Walk on, my quiet, lonely friend.

I'll follow as I can,

And hope to meet you on your path

Where God is one with Man.

Northwest Bethel

Clarice Gibson, Corres.

A beautiful week end! Now is the time that frosts can creep in and then we usually have more beautiful weather again. The fall flowers are more than outdoing themselves in their dress of yellows, oranges and bronze. The marigolds out front are one huge bouquet of large yellow blossoms.

The apples are beginning to color up and the pumpkins are growing orange on the vines. Last year, not one of our pumpkins ripened on the vine and unless we get a frost soon we will have ripe ones enough for us and the boys. We have a squash vine that cross pollinated with what(?) and what have we! Am going out tomorrow and trying.

Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lap- ham and I went to Lewiston to the eye doctor where they both had appointments. We had dinner at York Steak House and then crossed over into Hebron where we saw huge fields of apples. Some had boxes in them so have either started picking or will soon. The day was not so nice as the week end but the weather was pleasant.

Doug Smith was home for the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert went down to Lewiston and picked up their grandson, Justin Gilbert, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs. Evelyn Hillborn and Miss Ellen Tuck spent a couple of nights at Wells and from there took side trips along the coast. One place of interest they visited was the Marble Light at York.

They came back by way of Sebago Lake. Mrs. Blanche Sibley and daughter, Edith, of Florida, visited the ladies last Sunday and had dinner. Monday Mrs. Elsie Reading and Walter Reading of Pennsylvania, were dinner guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gibbs and Heather had an unwelcome visitor Sunday morning, a skunk, and he left his calling card underneath the trailer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shimamura had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aylward.

Sunday a group went to Oxford County Fair. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason Jr., Carol and Melinda, Mr. and Mrs. Irving York and son and daughter, Penny, June Henry, Jo- lene Andre, Jon Owen and Jody Shimamura. The Mason girls won six ribbons and Carol tied for reserve champion with a girl from New Hampshire. They all had a picnic lunch together after church Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason III and family, and Mr. and Mrs. David Mason and daughter went to the fair.

The Charles Masons had all their grandchildren visit them as Mr. and Mrs. Lee Blake and Beth of Augusta were up visiting relatives over the week end.

Our son, George, went to the fair Sunday but he was more interested in 4-wheel-drive competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson had for Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. Davis Kimball and girls of Waterford and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Benson of Poland. Steve Carter was also a Sunday caller.

Sept. 2, the Frank Bensons had supper in Waterford with their daughter and family, the Kimballs.

One day last week, Frank and Sylvia, went to Dixfield to visit his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Brown.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Seames, Dawn and Ryan, attended the 4-H Horse Show at Evergreen Valley. Ricky received one ribbon, Dawn five, and Ryan four. Debbie made the costumes they wore. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stearns went to watch their family.

Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coolidge, and two girls, had his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Coolidge and Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coolidge, and Denise for supper.

Sunday morning, Judy Coolidge and Sarah took Brenda, Barnhill to Portland Jetport where she caught a plane to Florida. Judy also visited a college friend in Westbrook, Lorri Grindall.

Tom and Anne Rotoff helped her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown, get their wood under cover, Labor Day.

AMERICAN POWS: NEED YOUR HELP

Somewhere in Southeast Asia Dear Fellow Americans,

I am writing you to plead my case and that of countless other Americans, who like me, are still unaccounted for in the aftermath of the Vietnam War. Until now, I never had occasion to question the leaders of my country that I dearly love and respect even now. However, I am questioning the wisdom of some of our leaders who have seen fit to abandon me and the other men. My communist captors now tell me that we have been presumed dead by order of our Commander-in-Chief. Will we be forgotten by everyone, and do you really believe that all of us are dead? No, I am not dead, but I speak from the grave for I am buried, so to speak somewhere in Southeast Asia, in a jungle world no one cares to investigate. Will the price for my freedom and that of my fellow Americans be too high for our government to pay?

I willingly served my country and fellow man to the best of my ability, knowing that service to God and country was the right thing to do. I never imagined that when the going got rough, the leaders in our government would place political considerations above my welfare and that of all the other men left behind with me. Now they are attempting to suffocate us under their blanket label, "Presumed Dead." I refuse to believe that my countrymen no longer care about us.

As I sit here in solitude, thinking of my homeland, my faith in America is what sustains me. The America of which I was taught to be proud was not a country that would abandon its citizen soldiers to imprisonment and torture, and term such a disgrace, "peace with honor."

I remember in 1969, when the facts about the prisoners were released, you all rallied together to bring them home. You did bring some of us back. Please don't leave the job half done bring ALL of us back.

I do not seek sympathy or tears from you, but I do need your help and support. If you can find it in your hearts to support me and the other men, please write the President, elected representatives on every level, county, state and national . . . express your concern for me and the other

The recreational highlight of the weekend is the intercollegiate football game between the University of Maine and Rhode Island, Saturday at 1:30 p. m.

The annual meeting of the Parents and Friends Association will be held Sunday at 10:45 a. m. in the Bangor Lounge of the Memorial Union while informal discussions with university administrators and faculty members have been scheduled for Saturday from 9 to 10:30 a. m. at the Field House.

The opening day's highlight, Friday, is a presentation of the movie "Tiddler on the Roof" at 6:30 and 9:45 p. m. in Hauck Auditorium.

Last year families came from Maine and 10 other states as far away as Texas to participate in the Weekend.

If you were in my place, I would do the same for you. I implore you to act NOW, TODAY, tomorrow may be too late. My fate is in your hands!

"CRIME ALERT" ISSUED BY THE STATE POLICE

A "Crime Alert" has been issued by the state police for the citizens and police agencies in Maine.

"Maine is experiencing a sudden rise in crime based upon State Uniform Crime Reports January through June 1980. For example, burglary is up 6.26% over the first six months of last year—making this the first rise in this crime in the five years statistics have been kept," said Col. Allan H. Weeks, chief of the Maine State Police.

Murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, and motor vehicle theft, which comprise the total overall Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Crime is up 7.17% for the first six months of 1980, with 1,325 more offenses reported thus far this year compared to the same period last year.

In concert with these crime increases, said Col. Weeks, is a "serious reduction" in personnel and operational budgets for police agencies throughout Maine.

"The recent economic decline is strongly suspected of being the cause of the increased crime, and many police officials feels this is not the time to be cutting services in police agencies," Weeks said. According to Gary Sawyer, State Data Analysis Center director, "Of the 35 police departments of ten men and over surveyed, 14 had cuts involving 30 personnel, and many departments not losing personnel experienced increased operational costs for such things as overtime accounts, patrol, or special assignments."

"State police are operating at their lowest level of resources in recent history and have developed special operational policies to deal

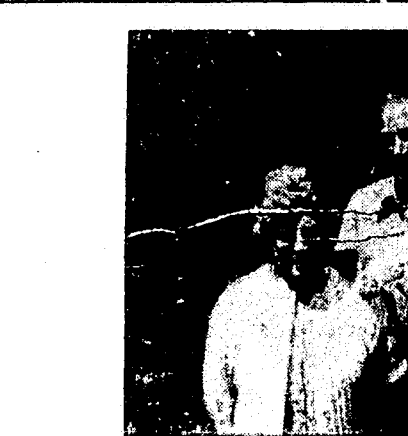

FREE HEARING TEST SCHEDULED SEPT. 19 AT MEDICINE SHOPPE IN NORWAY

"Discovering a Hearing Loss Today May Prevent Deafness Tomorrow" is the billing for a free hearing aid test being conducted by Chomas Hearing Aid Center at the Medicine Shoppe, a prescription-oriented pharmacy at the corner of Alpine and Paris Streets in Norway, on Sept. 19 from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

One of the most prevalent chronic disabilities among the population of the United States is loss of hearing. According to a U. S. Public Health Survey, about 14.5 million Americans—including 3 million school age children—have a hearing problem serious enough to warrant surgery, medical treatment or amplification with a hearing aid. To date, 23% of the persons screened at Medicine Shoppes across the country showed a serious hearing impairment.

Two age groups are especially susceptible to hearing loss—the very young and the elderly. Limiting the statistics to severe losses—the inability to hear and understand spoken words—the rates are about 28 per 1,000 for the elderly and less than 1.0 per 1,000 infants. Deafness is especially serious in young children as it prevents them from learning and developing their communicative skills to a normal degree. To the elderly, deafness represents not only an upset in their social lifestyle, but isolation from the rest of society. Those people live in a world of silence and are many times set apart from their fellow human beings because of their inability to communicate.

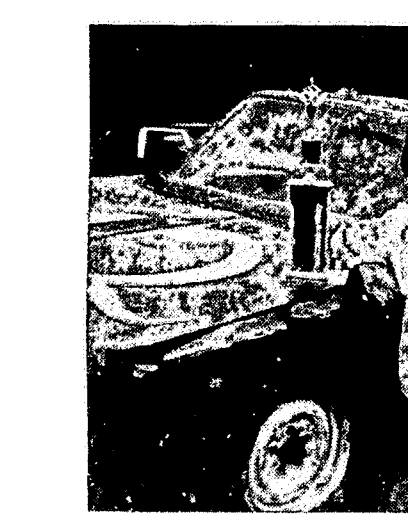

Early detection is vital for the control of a hearing problem and necessary for the prevention of further deterioration," says Henry Pelletier, pharmacist at the Medicine Shoppe. "The major difficulty when dealing with the problem of hearing loss is that it occurs slowly WINNING TICKET DRAWN — On Labor Day afternoon, Joe Taylor drew the winning ticket for the home made table raffled off by the Gilead Women's Club. Margaret Belanger of Spring Street, Bethel was the lucky winner. with increased calls for service," said Weeks.

In the light of the existing crime trends, the state police chief suggests that persons fiscally responsible for law enforcement budgets at the municipal, county and State levels "carefully evaluate" the needs for effective protection before eliminating police services that are so vitally needed at this time.

26,000+ ELDERLY MAINE RESIDENTS RECEIVED RENT OR TAX REBATES IN 1979

More than 26,000 low-income elderly residents have filed applications for rent or tax rebates in a program that saw $5.5 million returned to more than 26,000 last year.

The Elderly Householders Tax Rent Refund Act, administered by the State Bureau of Taxation, is available to Maine residents 62 or over or an unmarried widow or widower 55 or over who is receiving federal disability payments and who meet the same income guidelines. To be eligible an individual must have an income of $5,000 or less and couples an income of $6,000 or less. The tax or rent must have been paid by a state resident in 1979.

Applications have been mailed to 28,000 people who received refunds last year. "Although 2,000 did not qualify for a refund then, they may now," Trish Riley, Director of the Department of Human Services, Bureau of Maine's Elderly, explained.

Applications are available from the Bureau of Taxation, any regional office of the Department of Human Services and the Area Agencies on Aging. Deadline for filing is Oct. 15, 1980.

More information is available at the Bureau of Taxation by calling toll-free 1-800-452-1924.

ly until it is too late to do anything about it."

The hearing test is not a diagnosis, so those people who have been identified with a definite hearing problem are encouraged to visit their family physicians to find the exact cause and treatment of the problem.

This screening is one of several free health services Medicine Shoppe offers regularly. Others include screenings for high blood pressure, diabetes, glaucoma and cancer of the colon and rectum.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST

Sunday afternoon, the papers are read and time to just "set", to reflect—letting our mind wander. Our familiar chair feels real good—we notice the sun's rays are in a different position—seems only yesterday, in the spring—that we sat here and now summer's ending—trees are still green and garden enjoying a few last days of warmth—but tomorrow?

We hear the words of a lovely hymn—"Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling"—calling for you and for me, who you are weary come home—home—earnestly—tenderly Jesus is calling, calling—Oh, sinner come home. Oh for the wonderful love he has promised—promised for you and for me—tho we have sinned; he has mercy and pardon, pardon for you and for me. Come home—Come home—you who are weary, come home—home, Earnestly and tenderly Jesus is calling — calling — oh, sinner come home."

Years are piling up and our reflective mood brings to our mind deeds and thoughts of the past; we have accumulated a portion of this world's goods—children come of age and grandchildren bring a new joy to our hearts—friends seem more meaningful and their presence comforts us. The evening calm draws near — lengthening shadows as the sun moves on it's way. Many thoughts cross our mind—what legacy have I left behind—have I done any good for someone—whose feet have I trod on—have I made someone happier today—what joys have I brought that someone's home might be brighter—have I truly loved those near me—what about others—have I given a smile and perhaps a helping hand to one that needed it?

Could that hymn make such an impression on me? Yes, I am a sinner—but I'm so glad that one day I took Jesus Christ at his word—when his tender love was felt—I realized he cared for me—his pardon and mercy was mine—what a joyous moment! I'll never forget—when his pardon I received—I became his child—a child of God. That very moment when something wonderful happened—a blessed peace—the Holy Spirit came to take residence in my heart "The Comforter" had come—just as Jesus promised.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY
HELD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Bethel Historical Society was held last Thursday evening in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. A pot-luck supper preceded the meeting.

Reports from various committees were heard including the Membership Committee with Chairman E. M. Quinn announcing that the Society's membership now totaled 390 with 101 new members added during the past year, 19 of them life members. Chairman Alden Kennett reported for the Genealogical Committee that the genealogical survey of all those living in Bethel was well underway.

The nominating committee consisting of Arlene Brown, Suzanne Fiske and Harry Kuzik, Chairman, reported the following slate of officers: President, Catherine Newell; Vice President, Donald G. Bennett; Secretary, Edith Eaton Eddy; Treasurer, E. Louise Lincoln; Trustee for three years, Helen Morton. It was voted by the membership to accept the report of the nominating committee.

President Catherine Newell expressed the gratitude of the Society for the long service by retiring trustee Suzanne Fiske. She also noted the passing of the first president of the Society, Charles Heywood.

The artifact of the month was a gift from Norris Brown, the summer house once on the site of the Bethel Area Health Center which was moved to the grounds of the Moses Mason House and will be restored this fall.

President Newell and Vice President Bennett reviewed the record of the Society since the last annual meeting. This included membership growth of 101 to 390 members including 19 life members, another $50,000 added to the endowment from the William Bingham II Trust for Charity, a Maine history course offered for the first time, the visitation of over 2,000 students and adults to the Museum, the hosting of the Annual Meeting of Maine Citizens for Historic Preservation, the formation of an Art Committee and several exhibitions, the awarding of the Dr. Moses Mason Award to Terri Lee Blake for her essay on local history, the publication of the Society's cook book and sale of over 600 copies, the presentation of a special program commemorating the centennial of the Bethel Library Association, the holding of the annual volunteers dinner, the presentation once again of "Gould through the Years" during Alumni Weekend, sponsorship of Sudbury Canada Days, the undertaking of a genealogical survey, assembling a political memorabilia exhibit, a successful Moses Mason birthday party and Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show, record attendance at meetings, a successful Annual Heritage Day, sponsorship of film and lecture series during July and August, the receipt of a grant to survey Oxford County buildings and sites from the Maine Historic Preservation Commission and the hiring of George Allen as Project Director.

The continuation of the indexing of the Bethel Citizen by James Haskell on a voluntary basis, the contributions of three Senior Project Gould Academy Students in surveying Bethel's architecture and in archival organization, the daily volunteer work of Phyllis Hunt Roberts as museum registrar and typist, the selection of Society Director as a participant in the Seminar on Historical Administration at Colonial Williamsburg, the exhibit of A. D. Shattuck's painting "Sunset at Bethel" on loan from Vassar College, the raising of nearly $700 in the annual endowment campaign, the donation of articles from 56 individuals and receipt of second prize for the float in Newry's 175th anniversary celebration and third prize for the costumes of Dr. and Mrs. Mason, the loss due to death of members Ruth Grover, Sidney Davidson, Edward Hanscom, Richard Waldron Sr., Libbie Kneeland, Paul Head and Dorothy K. Truman.

The program featured slides of old photographs collected during the past year as well as some of the Society's activities for the same period.

Following the program, two annual meeting cakes were served, A. D. #44 board is scheduled to the gift of L. Gen. and Mrs. James D. Alger (USA-Ret'd).

EAST ANDOVER
—Mrs. Marjorie Jodrey, Corres.—

Mrs. Barbara Flaherty and Charles S. Cutting were supper guests Aug. 28 of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cutting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cutting were in Kennebago for the week end. They attended the Little Kennebago Lake Association's barbecue for campowners on Sunday, Aug. 31.

On Wednesday, Sept. 3, John Percival cut his leg while using a chain saw at work. It required 28 stitches to close the cut.

First day of school went off without too many tears. Some of the first yearers refused to get on that great big bus but after seeing other children their size on it decided it wouldn't hurt to give it a try. They all came home with big stories about their new teacher and friends. A great experience and the best days of their life, even if they can't see it now.

Howard Dunning is a patient at Cozy Inn Nursing Home. Cards or visits would be appreciated.

Mrs. Frankie Emerson, Andover, Mass., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emerson, Sr. for a few days. On Monday, Sept. 8, she returned to Andover, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Thurston and sons, Danny, Jon and Kurt, entertained at a barbecue on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Lenny Bishop and children, Valerie, Zandy, David and Chad, of Bethel.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE — CIRCA 1870

(The following was found by one of our readers as she was looking through an old book prior to a yard sale.)

A Gentle Hint to Loafers.
Dated—Washington, D. C.
April 21, 1870

To the editor of the Republican—

Will you oblige your lady readers by directing their attention to certain specimens of masculinity, imagining themselves gentlemen, who from sunset until about 9 o'clock every evening, loaf in the vicinity of the Post Office, for the evident purpose of staring imperiously at every lady when business or pleasure cause them to pass in that direction.

One bull-necked, burly, gross-faced individual in particular renders himself painfully obnoxious to lady passers-by, owing to his impertinence, and what makes the matter more intensely disgusting is, that he appears to have arrived at the stage of life when he should be found at home dandling his grandchildren instead of insulting ladies.

By directing the attention of the public to these loafers you will abate an intolerable nuisance, and confer a favor upon many ladies as well as on,

Yours respectfully,

Mattie

Telstar R. H. S. News

Telstar held its Second Annual Student Leadership Conference on Wednesday, Sept. 3. It was held in Telstar Regional High School's Library. It proved to be a big success since everyone got to meet Telstar's new principal, Mr. Bouchard.

A date for Homecoming was set. It will be held Oct. 18. There will also be a high school dance held Saturday, Sept. 13. The band, "Night Flight" will be performing.

After everyone met and talked to Mr. Bouchard everyone assembled outside for a cook out. The entire afternoon was spent with everyone in their respective committees. The calendar committee was working on activities for the new year while the constitution committee worked on proposing changes in the Student Council Constitution. The Student Council will hold its meetings every third and sixth day during second after lunch study.

It was just the kind of day for a short walk. What could be better than to follow a road back to the hills. Many times, Ruth, Fay, and I have traveled to Patch Mountain and around the "Loop". It is a lack of perception if we believe that bees in a swarm or sheep in a flock are all the same. It is also true of the seasons, the days, or the years. No two are ever the same; therefore we find new interest no matter how many times we travel a certain route.

The car was left by the roadside, then we took the road reaching away before us like a corridor walled by the many different kinds of trees. All are individuals and perhaps one of the most memorable, the aspen. One, especially was hit by a lazy breeze and turned its leaves inside out flourishing its silver banners. How they shone in the sun, like hundreds of white butterflies, drifting against the green background. These add life to a landscape.

While crossing the first bridge, we paused to look up and down stream to note the panorama being unfolded on the banks.

Over the silky surface of the water near the bridge slow ripples rode languidly. A bit of thistle-down rose and fell drifting toward the shore.

On our way up the hill we advanced at leisure, pausing now and then to pick blackberries that hung ripe by the wayside. Eating as we went we tasted the sweetness of our picking.

At the place, where stands the big white house, but lonesome today, we decided to walk a bit more before following the trail that dipped into the woodland and on around the "Loop".

After a short distance we turned back and began to descend the road by a field. Ahead of us we discovered a brown roller of dirt. Had it been made to turn away the water of a heavy rain? We wondered. Then we discovered several more across the road but still wondering why. The ridges were easy to walk over but to drive, no. Maybe this was the answer.

At the foot of the hill and across the lowland stretch, Town Meeting Elm, which shaped, lifted its arms twisted and broken toward the sky with swirling clouds which formed and reformed toward the horizon line.

Turning, right, here, we were on the home stretch. We found it pleasant, as we noticed a forest of miniature lichens and mosses on decaying logs and bright red berries we could not identify.

In a place among the spruces there was a witch's broom, a mysterious tangled mass of twigs, reminding me of a porcupine rolled into a ball.

Sent in by Eva Yates:

A lovely, clear, cool morning. Seems good to see the school buses going again. It's a really cool morning, makes you think of visits from Jack Frost before too long. The tomatoes are getting ripe, the shell beans are almost ready to go to the winter storage in glass jars. String Beans and corn have gone by, and our hay still stands in the field for which I am not pleased. By Joe hanging the shirt he wore thru the day in the garden at night and he and the dog taking a walk nightly around the garden nothing has touched it. So maybe your old dirty sweaty shirt is good for something after all.

Gary Yates of Norway was a super guest of his Grandmother Eva and Uncle Joe Yates Saturday night.

Peggy Yates left for Bar Harbor at 5:30 Sunday morning to visit the B. H. Yates for a couple of days.

T. Yates and two children called on his grandmother Saturday afternoon.

Russell and Eva Yates were in Rumford Sept. 3 and at Twichells in Oxford on Friday, Sept. 5, for tractor repairs.

Joe and Eva's Go-Shoes have been on the hook the bigger part of the week—but Peggy Blake has been going.

Don't forget installation at Bear River Grange is this Saturday, Sept. 13. Pot luck supper at 6:30. So warm up your Go-Shoes—grab your hat and pot luck and come over, the latch string is out. Lat-

We had a very flashy, noisy thunderstorm Sept. 2 for the entire evening. It did lots of damage in many places and it has been a bit cooler since and we are glad.

Once again, it is Oxford County Fair time and I hope they can have several good cool days, so their programs may be carried out and the 4-H Clubs' work also. It sure means a lot to the youngsters, in several ways.

Mr. and Mrs. "Root" Lawrence went with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Penley Sr. to Thomas Point for lobsters and clams. Doris brought one home for yours truly (Joh. star).

Community Club meeting at the hall Sept. 22. Voted to have the last picnic supper, Sept. 20, 5:30 p. m. Voted to buy material for one half of the roof, and hopefully the work will be donated by members of the Club and former residents.

Ron Ross of West Paris will be on the roof. Who will join him? The ladies will serve a free meal to the roofing crew at noon. Think about it. Another donation in memory of Joe Barrett was received from Madelyn Herrick, South Paris. Voted to pay Ellis Ellingsworth for his work in the electrical department.

Mrs. David Lyons is with her mother, Mrs. William Bunton, Medford, Mass., for a while as her mother had a heart attack and other problems. David Lyons has a pick up truck.

Callers at Lawrences, Alice Billings, Henman Card, Stan Heath, the Kainowskis, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott, Jo-Ann, Rufford.

At the place, where stands the big white house, but lonesome today, we decided to walk a bit more before following the trail that dipped into the woodland and on around the "Loop".

In a place among the spruces there was a witch's broom, a mysterious tangled mass of twigs, reminding me of a porcupine rolled into a ball.

Beneath another bridge there flowed leisurely a peaceful stream. It would about its smooth bed and particles of sediment were inched along by the current below me.

A few more hill-dips and we were at the last and biggest bridge. Looking down stream we could see odd, polished boulders. Some were near shore and some in mid-stream. They reflected the rays of the sun shining with a high polish. The water here rushed enough to cause a white spray and a bit of foam to glint in the sun.

Before entering the car we called on a friend just recently home from the hospital. It was nice to find her better.

On a day like this I never seem to stay long enough for my mind to absorb all the beauty. Never could I have enough.

On Saturday, Holly and Doris, Erwin and wife, Doris, met Mr. and Mrs. "Buster" Waterhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cole and Mrs. Verna Libby in Westbrook for dinner then went to Friendly Village for the evening.

NOTES FROM

Evans Notch

White Mountain National Forest

Now that Labor Day has come and gone, the recreational use on the National Forest has diminished. Vacations are over and students are back to school. Yet those individuals who still have the urge to get out in the fresh air, find autumn a very pleasant time to be out-of-doors.

September days offer very mild temperatures, with just a subtle coolness of things to come. The air is generally very clear, and is an asset to any mountain top vista. Popular hikes for fall viewing may include trips up the Baldface, Royce's, Caribou or Spotted Mountain.

Later this month is also the peak of fall foliage. So, if you are planning a day or afternoon of sight seeing, be sure to consider Route 113 through Evans Notch or even Wild River and Crocker Pond areas for this trip.

The members of the SCSCEP Program will soon be preparing the fall and winter sign changes on our District roads. They will also be doing the final maintenance work before the campgrounds close next month.

The post Labor Day period is also the time of year when the timber crew begins gearing up for preparation of next year's timber sales. The foresters and technicians will soon be flagging out cutting areas and marking the timber that will be harvested. In past years the volume of timber sold has often exceeded 8.5 million board feet.

We would like to remind you that the sealed bids for the nine small timber sales on our District must be in our Bridge Street office no later than 2:00 p. m. on Sept. 17, 1980.

Secondly, the sealed bids for the Roost Sale must be submitted to the Forest Supervisor's Office, 719 Main St., P.O. Box 638, Laconia, N.H., 03246 before 2:00 p. m. on Sept. 18, 1980.

Recently we have had several inquiries about this year's trapping regulations on the Evans Notch District. There will be no permits required, and the restrictions will be the same as last year. If you have any other questions contact Dennis, Kanten at our office in Bethel. Phone No. 207-824-2134.

For those of you who have not had a chance to stop in to our office during normal office hours, we will have an Open House on Oct. 5, 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. We have handout information, free seed packets, a movie on National Forest Management, and personnel to answer any questions you may have. We hope to see you there.

The members of the Pleasant Valley Bible Church met once again in the basement of their new Church on the Flat Road. A good attendance enjoyed the singing of Linda Stowell, Martha McLean and Rebecca Stowell as they sang "Except a Man Be Born Again." Another special was the organ music of Ellen Lovejoy with Cindy Belanger on the flute, as Ellen sang "Follow Me". The flower arrangements were lovely from Harriet Stowell, Elaine Hutchins and Juanita Korhonen.

Saturday was a work day on the roof. It is hoped it will be finished by next Sunday. There were two ball games at 2 p. m. with Bridgeton. Each team won one game. At the lunch break a huge birthday cake was cut in honor of the birthdays of Dot and Dale Korhonen, Nancy Griffith and Martha McLean.

Recently a black bear was seen crossing the Flat Road, near the Kay's summer residence. The submarine that young Richard Walker is serving on is out on sea trials.

Diane Walker Tran has employment with Bass Shoe Co. in Rumford and will attend classes in Farmington two mornings a week.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Cummings visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Strother, in Oxford. They stopped in at the Fairgrounds to see the Grangers at work on their exhibits.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lovejoy spent Sunday at Ledgeview in West Paris with Miss Lillian Lovejoy. On Monday her family took her to Lewiston to shop and visit friends.

Arthur Wyman of Key West, Fla. with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cunningham and his granddaughter, Miss Susan Cunningham of Newcastle, were Sunday callers at the A. Cummings. They were registering Miss Susan at Gould Academy. They had Juanita and Rocky Cunningham with them and all enjoyed a picnic under the pines.

Miss Ellen Lovejoy went to Portland on Sunday. She starts her school on Monday.

DR. F. O'NEIL ROBERTSON

Dr. F. O'Neil Robertson, 231 Piper Drive, Ford City, Pa., died Tuesday evening, Sept. 2, 1980, in the Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa., from a heart condition.

Born on Dec. 29, 1918, in Bethel, he was the son of Frank O. Robertson, Sr., and Mable (Scribner) Robertson.

HOMECOMING ARTS & CRAFTS FAIR AT UMO, OCT. 4-5

More than 200 spaces will be available for Maine craftsmen to demonstrate and exhibit their specialties at the second annual Homecoming Arts and Crafts Fair Oct. 4 and 5 at the University of Maine at Orono.

The fair has become a very popular feature of UMO's Homecoming Activities—so popular, in fact, that General Alumni Association officials have announced reservations already for 120 of the spaces.

All categories of craft specialties will be welcomed at the fair which is scheduled from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 4, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 5, in the Memorial Field House on the Orono campus. Participants are asked to demonstrate their crafts as well as exhibit them to stress the "hands-on" aspect of Maine creativity.

Theme for this year's Homecoming will be "People Serving People" and between 15,000 and 20,000 alumni, friends and guests are expected on campus during the four-day event which stretches from Thursday, Oct. 2, to Sunday, Oct. 5.

It's time to get ready for winter once again. Seems as if I just took the banking off.

students to spend a term or two in France, Germany or Mexico, and brings students from these countries to the Bethel campus for the academic year. Presently, two German boys and two French girls are at Gould, with one Gould student spending the fall term in Mexico and several others planning to spend the winter term in Europe.

Five new faculty members join Gould's staff this year, and the diverse mix of students and faculty from all over the world gives Gould an international flavor that affords each student the opportunity of sharing many new and different experiences.

A very busy fall term has been planned and includes Alumni Week End, Sept. 19-21; Trustees Week End, Oct. 3-5, and Parents Week End, Oct. 17-19. In the summer of 1981, Gould will offer a summer school program in addition to having the campus used by NTL, a Washington based educational institute that has used the Gould facilities since 1947. Headmaster Donald W. Fudge looks for this year to be one of Gould Academy's best.

DISTRICT 63 TO HOST REPUBLICAN HOME PARTIES

Several area residents will host home parties on Sept. 13, as part of a massive nationwide effort to identify and motivate supporters of Republican presidential candidate Ronald Reagan and all Republican candidates for office on the local, state, and national level.

"We're doing this because we think it's very important for people to be involved this year," District Chairman Al Barth said. "The Republican ticket needs the help of many thousands of citizens to win the election and bring about the changes we need in this country."

About a dozen local residents will gather at each home to watch Governor Reagan speak on a special television broadcast at which time, he will explain the campaign's voter identification drive, called Commitment '80, and urge citizens to take part.

Those present will be asked to sign up to participate in the next phase, a door-to-door canvass scheduled for Oct. 4.

Mr. Barth said that anyone in the District who is interested in donating a few hours of time to the Republican campaign may attend the parties scheduled for 1 p. m. Those hosting parties in Bethel are Jane Barth, High Street; Barbara Brown, Elm Street; Lynda Chandler, Church Street. Those wishing to attend should call one of these hosts.

proposal to purchase at a cost of $6,000 a 33 foot right-of-way on the northerly side of the railroad tracks in West Bethel between the Ferry Road railroad crossing and the former Cemetery crossing. This section of the road has long been used by the public but is not a town way. The Cemetery crossing was closed as part of the project upgrading the Ferry Road crossing and the installation of lights and gates at the location.

Having recently received their 1980 tax bills, many of those present manifested their concern about high taxes with opposition to articles involving expenditures of local money. The newly-formed Bethel Taxpayers Association was well represented at the session.
